Will the King be proud of Canada?

Words by S. G. Smith

Music by Frank Eborall

Maestoso

PIANO

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand features a series of eighth-note triplets in the treble clef, while the left hand plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the bass clef. The key signature is three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is common time (C).

The first vocal entry is marked ff (fortissimo). The melody is in the treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "1. Hear the bu - gle call, see Can - a - da stand, And sa - lute the King and 2. There has much been told since Can - a - da's birth, Of the things a - chieved that have".

The second vocal entry continues the melody. The lyrics are: "Moth - er - land. We'll re - spond and with the Un - ion Jack, We will proved of worth, And the King has heard and proud - ly smiled, Say - ing,".

The third vocal entry concludes the phrase. The lyrics are: "go to the front, but we'll come back, With hon - ors that he - roes a - 'Can - a - da is Bri - tain's child,' We'll go then to bat - tle with".

lone shall bring, We'll win the bat - tle for Bri - tain's King.
war - riors' zest, 'Tis but our du - ty to do our best.

REFRAIN

Hear the tramp of Can-a-da's ea-ger feet, We will nev - er learn the word re-treat. We will fight, for we are not a-fraid, We are Brit-ish sol-diers

Can - a - da made, And the King will be proud of Can - a - da.

Repeat Refrain
